War Department Calls for Quick Creation of Atom Energy Controls

American, British and Canadian Leaders Near End of Conference on International Controls

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 (AP)—The War department called today for quick creation of domestic controls over atomic energy, as American, British and Canadian leaders neared the end of their conference on international controls.

Secretary of War Patterson told a news conference that domestic legislation should be adopted promptly to clear the way for international action.

"My own view," he said, "is that international arrangements will require a domestic control in order for this government to make good on any agreement."

The War department's idea of legislation, he said, contemplates that a nine-man commission would control all atomic energy activities, including the construction of atomic bombs.

Report Expected Friday

President Truman, Prime Minister Attlee of Britain, and Prime Minister MacKenzie King of Canada, met again at the White House. Allied diplomats speculated that if the leaders agree on any plan for control of atomic force through the United Nations, the plan would be immediately communicated to Generalissimo Stalin, of Russia, and possibly to leaders of France and China as well. Those countries, with Britain and the United States, would have primary responsibility for carrying it out as permanent members of the United Nations Security Council.

Beyond this it was considered likely by persons close to all the conferences that a committee would be issued on Friday disclosing at least broad objectives and principles even though the exact provisions of any plan agreed upon might be kept secret pending their discussion with other governments.

Night Session Is Held

After a two-hour session this afternoon, the three government leaders scheduled another meeting at 10 p. m. tonight and still another for 10 a. m. tomorrow. William D. Hassett, White House press secretary, did not indicate what progress was being made. Asked when a communiqué might be expected, he replied, "when the conference have reached a conclusion."

The meeting tonight was concluded at 12 midnight. There is some talk around town of a meeting of Truman and Attlee with Stalin. British officials are known to feel that such a gathering would serve a useful purpose at this juncture if it cleared the air of mutual uncertainties and suspicions but there is no evidence that plans for a meeting have been made or even proposed.

Russia Again Demands Veto Power in Proposed Jap Control Council

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 (AP)—Russia once more is demanding a veto power in the proposed control council for Japan, Secretary of State Byrnes disclosed today.

The United States advocates a council in which Russia and the other Allies would be represented in which Gen. MacArthur as supreme commander would have a decisive say in case of disagreement. Several weeks ago Byrnes reported that Moscow apparently agreed to this plan.

But now, Byrnes told his press conference, the Russians have veered back to their original demand. This was for a council like the one which governs Germany in which all members must agree upon a course of action before it may be adopted and in which any one member alone could veto a proposed action.

The latest Russian position was made known in recent conversations between Foreign Commissioner Molotov and United States Ambassador W. Averell Harriman.

Pipe Line Controls End

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 (AP)—The two wartime orders which scheduled delivery of crude oil and petroleum products through the "big inch" and "little big inch" pipe lines will be revoked November 30.

Barkley Lists Six "Must" Bills For Congress before Adjournment

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 (AP)—Christmas is coming but Congress has six "must" bills to pass before its members can go home, Senate Majority Leader Barkley (Ky.) said today.

He listed them after a White House visit with other congressional leaders—a "full employment" measure, reorganization of government agencies, funds for UNRRA, continuation of various war powers reduction of war appropriations, and a deficiency appropriation.

The UNRRA allotment was the only one on which there were developments of consequence today. The House Foreign Affairs committee opened hearings on President Truman's request for a new $350,000,000 authorization, heard State department officials defend the relief agency and committee mem-

British Advance In Soerabaja Is All but Stalled

By LEIR ERICKSON

BATAVIA, Java, Nov. 14 (AP)—Determined Indonesian troops, using artillery and frequently counterattacking, clung firmly to fortified positions along the east-west railway in Soerabaja today and limited British Indian forces to scant gains in the fifth day of bloody fighting.

The British continued bombing some key Indonesian positions, but declared they were using "only minimum force" against the Indonesians, entrenched in concrete pillboxes and air raid shelters built before the war.

An official statement said the British command was giving every opportunity to the "extremists to stop the useless bloodshed of their own people" and added that the British "still hoped" to occupy the big Java naval base without repeating last Saturday's heavy sea and air bombardment.

Meanwhile, in Batavia, the new 36-year-old premier of the unrecognized Indonesian republic, Sutan Sjahrir, was assembling his cabinet to try to stop the fighting in Soerabaja and restore order throughout Java.

Action was delayed pending the arrival of two cabinet members from troubled East Java. Sjahrir already has indicated he would fly to Soerabaja to seek peace.

Minister of Information Amir Sjarifuddin said he was confident the Indonesian government could restore order if it received co-operative support from the British.

British Maj. Gen. D. C. Hawthorn at his headquarters in Batavia, bluntly accused the commander of the Japanese Sixteenth army and his chief of staff of having deliberately handed over arms to "unruly elements" in Java.

Hawthorn administered a verbal lashing to the two Japanese officers, Lt. Gen. Yuchiro Nagano and Maj. Gen. Molchiro Yamamoto, at a formal surrender ceremony held a full six weeks after the arrival of British troops.

The two generals and another staff officer of the Sixteenth army, Maj. Gen. Junji Nakamura, later were placed aboard a plane which took off for Singapore, where they will answer charges of violating the Allied surrender terms.

Church of England Assembly Approves Advertising Program

LONDON, Nov. 14 (AP)—A four-million-dollar advertising program was adopted unanimously by an assembly of the Church of England today after a warning from the bishop of Rochester, England, that the clergy's "spiritual anemia" had left half of Britain "worse than heathens."

Calling for a revival of religious life, a 172-page report submitted to the assembly recommended a "missionary invasion of the modern agencies of propaganda," in a five-year publicity program.

Money to meet the advertising costs, the report said, "would be a matter for prayer and careful consideration from all points of view."

Members criticized it, and decided to ask Gen. Eisenhower about it, probably Friday. "Ike" will be busy tomorrow testifying on compulsory military training before the House Military Committee, but Barkley and Speaker Rayburn told reporters at the White House that there is no chance of action before Congress quits on this measure nor on the proposal to merge the War and Navy departments.

The Senate Military committee, holding hearings on the unification plan, heard from Gen. Jacob L. Devers, who led the Southern France landings and now commands the army ground forces, that he would be glad to serve under a navy man "to start with" if such a one should head the proposed combined department.

Battles Swirl about Two Major Nationalist Strongholds

By SPENCER MOOSA

CHUNGKING, Nov. 14 (AP)—Crack Communist troops were thrown back in savage fighting as they hurled heavy attacks at two major Nationalist strongholds in Inner Mongolia, an official dispatch said today.

The battles still swirled about the railway terminal of Paotow and long-besieged Kweisui, capital of Suiyuan province eighty miles to the east, where the Communists threw in 10,000 reinforcements, the dispatch added.

The attack on Paotow, western terminal of the now-severed Peking-Suiyuan railroad, opened at 3 a. m. yesterday and 3,000 Communist troops forced the western gate, this account claimed. Eleven hours later they were expelled.

Reds Attack Kweisui
Gen. Ho Lung, famed Communist commander, meanwhile was reported to have attacked Kweisui with five columns 10,000 strong.

The dispatch said the attackers inflicted "considerable casualties on civilians" in the southwestern section of the city before most of them were wiped out.

The situation remained obscure on the southern border of Manchuria, southeast of this battle zone, where neutral advisers had reported Nationalist troops had captured the Communist fortress city of Shanhaiwan (Linyu).

A Communist spokesman was unable to confirm Shanhaiwan's fall but said at last reports government troops were but two-thirds of a mile from the city.

He declared the government had landed four armies at the United States marine-occupied port of Chinwangtao for the sole purpose of seizing Shanhaiwan and pushing on into Manchuria.

Thousands of United States-trained and equipped Nationalist troops began landing meanwhile at Tsingtao, Shantung province port 275 miles south of Chinwangtao.

Marines Secured Port
The Communists have dominated this strategic coastal province since the end of the war, but unofficial reports recently indicated they were pulling out by sea for Manchuria.

American marines previously had secured Tsingtao, but the Nationalists themselves had no foothold here. Chinese Red troops held positions on all sides of the port.

A foreign office spokesman, meanwhile, made the first official Chungking admission that China was having difficulty in negotiating with Russia for the entry into Manchuria.

"Negotiations are continuing but so far we have not overcome all the difficulties," he said.

Minister of Information K. C. Wu interposed at that point and denied a rumor afloat in Chungking that Russia had granted Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek permission to fly 1,500 troops to Changchun, Manchuria's capital.

Bowles's New Car Policy Is Rapped

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 (AP)—Demands that OPA Chief Chester Bowles be "bowled out" rang in the House chamber today in an uprising against his price policy on new automobiles.

One member offered a bill proposing to strip Bowles of price controls and to distribute the pricing authority to other government agencies.

Bowles, meanwhile, showed no sign of retreating from his position that retail car dealers must absorb part or all the price increases granted manufacturers, with the purpose of holding new car retail prices at or near 1942 levels.

Planning to announce the first new car prices, perhaps late tomorrow, he contended the dealers, even with a reduced margin between manufacturers' price and retail price, still will make more than prewar profits—because they won't have prewar losses on used car trade-ins.

Hoodlums, Suspected Of Provoking Honolulu Riots, Are Hunted

HONOLULU, Nov. 14 (AP)—Police patrols were doubled tonight in the Damon housing district and detectives swarmed through the dimly lit area looking for hoodlums suspected of provoking Monday night's riot between 1,500 navy men and civilians.

Police Chief W. A. Gabrielson announced that the redoubtable police force would track down reports of trouble-making by civilian hoodlums.

Navy participants in the fighting had said they charged into the district looking for "local toughies" who had made repeated attacks on sailors. They claimed the police had done nothing to check the wave of unprovoked assaults and robberies.

The naval air station near the Damon district announced that its male personnel would remain confined to the station until an inquiry was completed and, steps taken to prevent a recurrence of disorders.

Extensive West Virginia Manhunt Comes to End

KINGWOOD, W. Va., Nov. 14 (AP)—One of the North's West Virginia's most extensive manhunts, in which airplanes and bloodhounds were used, ended today when Paul Henry Hahn, 21, surrendered to police at Tunnelton.

Hahn, badly bruised in a fall over a cliff in Harrison county while fleeing from a posse, and William Turner, 29, condemned slayer, escaped from the Preston county jail here Monday just before they were scheduled to be transferred to the Moundsville penitentiary.

Gen. Lucius Clay will return to Germany to continue in charge of the civil administration of Germany.

"IKE" ON RECEIVING END OF KISS THAT DREW LAUGH

THE UNIDENTIFIED feminine admirer who chose to show her enthusiasm for Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower by placing a kiss on his cheek when Boston turned out to welcome the general of the army home from Europe, was responsible for the laugh enjoyed by the group shown above. This happened just as "Ike" took his place of honor on the reviewing stand at the state house. On his right is Maj. Gen. Willard S. Paul, with Gov. Maurice J. Tobin on his left. Independent Unions Ask Voice At Labor-Management Parley

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 (AP)—A group of independent unions demanded entry today to President Truman's labor-management conference which Secretary of Labor Schwelmbach said was "making definite progress" toward industrial peace.

Partly for this reason, he told newsmen, the executive group has decided to lend "guidance" to the subordinate committees. It has asked Conference Secretary George W. Taylor to suggest means of co-ordinating their work and telling them what is expected to them.

Meanwhile the conference received a bombardment of ideas for curing industrial ills from non-participants. Labor and management groups were heard at the first meeting of the public hearings committee headed by Dr. Frank P. Graham, president of the University of North Carolina.

Edward G. Wilms, chairman of the Independent Unions of New Jersey, declared that unless millions of workers in independent unions are granted representation on the National Labor Relations Board—as well as a place at the labor-management conference table—there could not be "peace with justice on the homefront."

Wilms said he spoke for 150,000 white-collar, independent unionists in New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania and Maryland.

Another witness, Walter W. Genarazzo, of Waltham, Mass., president of the 8,000-member American Watch Workers' Union, said he was satisfied with the present representation would be unwieldy.

But he urged that other unaffiliated unions organize a "third federation of labor, dedicated to union democracy and labor-management co-operation," in order to get recognition for independent unions as full-fledged partners equal to that of CIO or AFL.

Allied headquarters, to which Ogasawara made his application, said it was not yet prepared to indicate its policy in the matter. It is known, however, that the economic and scientific section of headquarters is working on what Japan considers its foremost problem.

"Japanese trade is in a state of suspension but we want to start trade as soon as possible," Ogasawara said. He voiced the hope that the United States again would become Nippon's best customer.

Specifically, Ogasawara asked permission for Japan to import 3,000,000 tons of foodstuffs, 1,000,000 tons of salt and sizeable tonnage of cotton, copra, coal, iron ore and non-ferrous metals.

Barter payments would be made in gold and other precious metals; diamonds, silk, cotton goods, chemical products, medical supplies, machinery, hardware, tin and other Japanese products.

While the Allied Reparations Commission conferred on the amount of the bill to be presented to Japan, the Kyodo news agency said it had learned that the government would set up its own reparations commission.

SIDNEY, Australia, Nov. 14 (AP)—Five American fliers were tortured and beheaded by the Japanese near Makassar, on Celebes island, Allied investigators said today.

They reported that natives, who found the headless bodies, said the Japanese turned the executions into gala celebrations.

The bodies lay in unmarked graves. One was found bound tightly and crouched as if in position for the beheader's sword. A medical examiner said the victim was beheaded by numerous sword blows.

Allied authorities said the air-men were believed to have been victims of Japan's navy secret police, who had headquarters at Makassar.

Herbert Vere Ewatt, Australia's foreign minister, declared that his country wanted the United States to take the lead in the postwar world, but that "Australia's willingness to follow your leadership in any new international program must be measured by our confidence in your ability to remain prosperous."

Spruille Braden, assistant secretary of state, who recently was attacked verbally as ambassador to Argentina, asserted in obvious reference to that country that there was only one "notorious exception" to economic co-operation in the Americas. He added extemporaneously that "in that one notorious exception I want to make it plain that we hear the cry of anguish from that noble land and will answer it by every appropriate means at our disposal."

Witness Says He Saw Japs Behead American Woman

By DEAN SCHEDLER

MANILA, Thursday, Nov. 15 (AP)—Master Sgt. Richard Sakakida, Hawaiian-born Japanese, testified today at the war crimes trial of Lt. Gen. Tomoyuki Yamashita that he had been warned by the general's judge advocate, now a prisoner of war, not to appear as a witness.

Sakakida was captured by the Japanese at Corregidor, then later made a civilian interpreter in the judge advocate's office at Yamashita's headquarters in the Philippines.

The judge advocate, a Col. Nishihara, is held in a prisoner of war camp here and Sakakida said he saw him there a few days ago.

Sakakida said he saw an American woman, Mrs. Blanche Juika, whose son is a major in the United States Army, blindfolded and beheaded along with other victims at Manila North cemetery a year ago by soldiers of Yamashita's command. He said the victims first were informed of the sentences after arriving at the cemetery.

The witness told of seeing two American fliers, downed in Manila bay in August, 1944, questioned in the judge advocate's office. He saw them two months later at old Bilid prison and hardly recognized the "frail, thin, beaten bodies." The fliers later were executed, the witness added.

Oregon State Guide Shows Dewey Won Presidential Election

SALEM, Ore., Nov. 14 (AP)—Oregon is a traditionally Republican state, but Democrats said today they never thought it would be carried this far.

The just-published Oregon Blue Book, official state guide, shows that Thomas E. Dewey defeated the late President Roosevelt in the last election.

A typographical error reversed all the presidential voting table.

The chief executive, in a letter transmitted to the concluding session of the thirty-second national foreign trade convention, added:

"The question," he said, "is whether our arrangements for exchange and distribution will be such that these enormous productive powers are enabled to operate freely for the benefit of everyone."

The 2,000 international traders and bankers gathered at the Waldorf Astoria hotel also heard:

Two Are Killed, 40 Hurt; Government Buildings Are Fired before Order Is Restored

By GEORGE PALMER

TEL AVIV, Palestine, Thursday, Nov. 15 (AP)—British paratroopers of the Sixth airborne division restored order in riot-ridden Tel Aviv at 11 o'clock last night after a huge crowd of Jewish civilians stormed through the streets in four hours of stoning and burning in which two persons were killed and more than forty wounded.

Shortly after midnight, following a large mass meeting against British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin's statement in the House of Commons Tuesday on Palestine, crowds marched through the heart of the city, attacking four government buildings and stoning police who attempted to restore order.

When the police were unable to quell the rioters by attempting to disperse the crowds with sticks, fully-armed airborne troops were called into action and for the first time since the riots of 1936 and 1939, British soldiers fired on Palestine citizens.

The heaviest fighting occurred in the vicinity of Colony Square along the main business street, Allenby road, when the large crowd of Jews stormed the district commissioner's office and the Tel Aviv central post office.

Post Office Is Saved
The district commissioner's office was set afire and gutted by blazing torches, but the paratroopers arrived in time to prevent the crowds from firing the post office.

Rioters, however, smashed the post office windows, yanked out telephones and poured gasoline over the counters preparatory to firing the building when troops dispersed the crowds.

Maj. John Shoop, of the Sixth airborne division, describing the sequence of events involving the firing by the troops, stood beside an armored car in Colony Square shortly before midnight and explained:

"When we arrived here a crowd of 400 to 500 people were throwing stones heavily at the police. We gave the necessary warnings."

"We hoisted our banners with the words 'Disperse or We Fire' written in Hebrew, Arabic and English."

"The crowd moved toward us and continued to throw stones. We had three chaps wounded, so I gave the order to fire. One man fired two rounds and wounded one of the attackers."

"When the crowd continued to charge I gave a second order to fire two more rounds in which another attacker was wounded."

Crowd Hurls Stones
Shoop said the crowd was shouting insults at the soldiers as it hurled stones and he declared that from the manner in which the rioters charged, it was his opinion that the crowd was an organized one. He estimated there were between eight and ten soldier casualties in the colony square fighting and that a like number of policemen were injured.

A police major in charge of the Tel Aviv area explained that the crowd were unarmed except for stones, but he added, "we had a very

Over 100 Persons Seek Postal Jobs

James C. Shriver, postmaster, said yesterday that over 100 applications, mostly from high school boys and girls, were received before the deadline Tuesday for sixty-two positions as part-time workers at the local post office during the Christmas rush.

Shriver said that successful applicants will begin work approximately one week before Christmas. Most of the girls will be employed as clerks and mail sorters, while the boys will assist in mail and parcel post deliveries and will help with heavier work at the post office.

Experienced extras will be given preference when the jobs are assigned, provided their previous services were satisfactory. Pay for temporary workers is eighty-four cents an hour.

Shriver estimated that the volume of business this year will be about three per cent greater than last year. He pointed out that last year a big volume of mail was handled during October in overseas shipments to servicemen, while this year, with many more men at home, the volume will be greater in December.

Greeting cards for men overseas should be mailed as soon as possible in order to insure delivery before the holiday and must be mailed at the first class rate.

Packages, weighing no more than five pounds and no larger than thirty-six inches in girth and length combined, may still be mailed to army personnel overseas provided a written request for the articles is received from the addressee. No request is necessary for packages to navy and marine corps personnel.

Coached by Frank Murray, formerly of Marquette, the Cavaliers in seven games have amassed 234 points to their opponents' 33.

Accused Slayer's Hearing Is Delayed

LEONARDTOWN, Md., Nov. 14. (AP)—Magistrate Ralph Abell said today that he had postponed from Friday until next Monday a preliminary hearing for George William Booker, 34, on a charge of murder.

State Trooper G. F. Sanger said he had worn out a murder warrant before Abell, charging Booker with the slaying of Navy Lt. Roger Edward Wilson, 28, Edgewood, Pa., at Booker's home Sunday.

Train-Taxi Crash Is Averted by Policeman

BROOKLYN, Md., Nov. 14. (AP)—Police Sgt. George Paterson flagged down an approaching freight train early today, with a flashlight stopping it just seventy-five feet from a stolen taxicab, stalled and empty on the B. and O. tracks.

The cab, stolen while its driver was eating lunch, had been abandoned with two flat tires about an hour before the arrival of the ninety-car, two-engine train.

Chicken Ceilings Remain

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14. (AP)—Declaring against any piecemeal removal of food price ceilings, Price Administrator Chester Bowles today refused to suspend the ceilings on chickens and turkeys.

Bowles outlined the government's policy on ending price controls in a statement to a House Agriculture subcommittee.

Jews Riot

"The crowd," the police major said, "was hurling some pretty big rocks and they were hurling them hard and fast."

One police lieutenant declared that people who gathered on the roofs of buildings overlooking Colony Square hurled large rocks down on the soldiers and police.

The streets of Tel Aviv where the rioting occurred were full of stones ranging in size from eggs to grapefruit late last night.

After the rioters were dispersed the square was ringed by British armored cars, police armored cars, army trucks, ambulances and jeeps. An estimated 200 soldiers and policemen, all fully armed, were on duty.

Paratroopers Patrol Streets Husky paratroopers, wearing colorful red berets and camouflage suits, patrolled the streets in Indian file, tommyguns at their hips, while police radio trucks and jeeps of airborne troops cruised throughout the city.

With a complete curfew ordered for the entire municipal area until further notice, only a few civilians were seen on the streets and they were probably persons employed in vital public utilities.

The scene outside the light industries office where the crowds started a huge bonfire of office files appeared warlike at 10:45 p. m., as the flames were extinguished and a pale white smoke filled the streets.

Paratroopers were scattered near every doorway, sprawled on their stomachs on the sidewalks, their rifles at their shoulders.

Tax-Reduction Cheers Are Scarcely in Order

FEDERAL TAX REDUCTION
has been authorized for next year, but the "Annapolis Evening Capital" declares, rightly, that before it is cheered too loudly, it would be a good idea to see how far the federal government moves toward trimming expenditures.

Some moves have been made for such trimming, but, as the "Evening Capital" notes, the net results are not very exciting or encouraging.
So far, most of the plans that have come out of Washington propose greater public spending instead of less. The president wants all federal salaries increased twenty per cent for the rank and file, a hundred per cent for some officials.
Also the president is promoting an eight to ten billion dollar spending plan in the construction of hydro-electric power dams to compete with or replace generating facilities already in existence, the heralded need for which seems fantastical.
And various other socialistic projects are being cooked up.

The real key to lower taxes is prudence in governmental expenditures, according to the report of a committee on postwar tax policy headed by Roger MacGill, former undersecretary of the Treasury.

"All taxation is burdensome," it states. "On the other hand, the creeping inflation which would result from periodic or chronic deficit financing would be a far heavier burden in the end on all the people, but particularly on the low income groups. These groups, which in the aggregate receive the bulk of all income payments, are invariably the principal victims of inflation. We cannot emphasize too strongly, not too often, that prudence in government spending is the key to low taxes. And we believe this will be achieved only if the people are brought face to face currently with the tax burden required to meet these expenditures."

If the spending already proposed by the federal administration is to characterize its postwar policy, the "Evening Capital" declares, tax reduction will be short-lived simply because the country cannot support soaring public debt indefinitely.

"Often during the last several years we hear the term 'federal money' or 'state money.' These are only bookkeeping terms. All the money spent by the federal, state or county or other political subdivision, that comes from taxation, is the money of the people. It is not federal money in any true sense.
It is the money paid in by John Smith, builder; Sam Jones, grocer;
or Bill Green, plumber. The sooner we stop thinking in terms of 'federal money' or 'state money' and begin speaking of the expenditures by government as 'our money' the more we will begin to scrutinize the projects for which the money is used."

"States have fallen for the bribe of easy federal money. They have stood in line for federal aid with the idea that they are getting something for nothing. But, here in Maryland, a check shows that it costs the individual considerably more than $1 for every $1 of federal money received."

"During the merry days of the New Deal it began to be customary to consider a million as small change and speak of billions. Then the war, with its necessary expenses, set our minds to thinking in terms of great federal expenditure. But the time has come when we as a nation must begin thinking about reducing our great debt, and doing some pruning in the expenses that drain away the taxes paid by the people."

It has, indeed, for, as the Annapolis newspaper says, one can't keep dancing forever without paying the fiddler. He is quite likely to make apologies for a strike note with the result a foregone conclusion.

An Exemption That Should Be Made

REPRESENTATIVE MASON (R-Md.) has introduced a bill in the House at Washington to exempt
the operations of mutual news gathering co-operatives from terms of the Sherman anti-trust act.

Mason announced that the proposed legislation was prompted by the recent supreme court decision that the Associated Press contravened the anti-trust act through its by-laws in restricting membership as against competition.

Mason's bill would amend the Sherman act by adding the following language:

"For purposes of this act, the ordinary and usual operations and activities of mutual news
co-operatives shall not be considered to be in restraint of, or to monopolize, any part of trade or commerce."

"It must be clear to Congress
now," Mason said, "that a law intended to protect the people against monopoly has a result never intended when it is applied to a mutual news gathering co-operative, such as the Associated Press."

This is what this newspaper said when the supreme court decision was handed down. It stated then also that the decision pointed to necessary action by Congress. It is good to see this action now started even though it is somewhat belated; but the logic and merit of the situation require affirmative completion of it.

German War Plant Razing Not Enough

ANOTHER GERMAN WAR plant has just been blown to smithereens.
It was the $70,000,000 Farben-controlled nitrocellulose plant at Eben-hausen, which fed the Nazi war machine five per cent of its nitrocellulose supply. In a single spectacular explosion, the two major units of the plant were reduced to rubble.

The preceding day the Farben, powder plant at Kaufbeuren was wrecked by TNT. Next on the demolition list is a $65,000,000 nitrocellulose and powder plant at Aschau.

"This begins the destruction of Germany's war potential," said Lt.
Gen. Lucian K. Truscott, United States Third Army commander, who pushed the plunger which set off the explosion leveling sixty buildings of the powder plant at Kaufbeuren. This plant was valued at $45,000,000.

But this removal of German war potentials will not be finished by the present destruction. Something will have to be done and surely to prevent rebuilding of them. This was the second time that the Allies had destroyed the Ebenhausen plant.
It was first demolished in 1919 but was rebuilt later by the Germans while the Allies snoozed indifferently.

The demolition of German war plants following the First World War was not sufficient. The Allies made the mistake then of leaving the most of Germany alone whereas experience proved that they should have done as they did this time, which was to march in and take control of the whole country.

Having presumably learned the lesson of that, let it be hoped that the lesson of making sure there will never be further rebuilding of German war potentials will likewise be learned. The present destruction should "stay put."

Farms Increase In the Far West

THERE IS A TREND in the Midwest toward fewer farms as improved machinery makes the tilling of more land by one man possible. In the Northeast there are more farms because of an accelerated trend toward suburban life.
But the real gain in number of farms has been in the West coast states of California, Oregon and Washington. That region has 14, 847 more farms and 8,014,121 more acres of land under cultivation than in 1940.

Not only did West Coast states gain more farms, but the average size of farms also increased, from 230.6 acres per farm in 1940 to 246.4 acres per farm in 1945. But in the area between the Northeast and the West coast agriculture is going in the direction of fewer and larger farms.

It is not difficult to explain the West coast gains in farm land. More irrigation water is being provided in all three states. Former wasteland or poor farm land is being converted into arable acreage. Irrigation can not add much acreage to land in production in interior America because most of it is in use now. The most it could do in this section would be to increase productivity.

It appears that Cumberland's luck about the healthy condition of its people during the war emergency is beginning to run out, according to the distressing news reports about the epidemic of illness that is causing so many students to be absent from the schools. Limited medical care is a hardship in the homes, although it could be worse, but it is harder on the doctors who can scarcely put in any more hours at their work. Here we have local emphasis of the need for the release of more doctors and nurses from the armed services.

If the Labor-Management conference at Washington doesn't do anything more than merely "indorse" collective bargaining it will be a failure. There never has been any question about acceptance of collective bargaining. What is wanted, instead of any such superlative indorsement, is a formula to achieve industrial peace. But if indorsement there must be, it might well be applied to the Hatch-Burton-Ball proposal.

J. Millard Tawes, state controller, is quite right in urging a close watch on the fiscal affairs of the state to avoid any particular embarrassment resulting from economic conditions of the war years. It should be two-phased, also, with attention to the outgo as well as the income. Heretofore official attention has been concentrated on the latter.

What is needed in the automobile industry is more rideouts and fewer walkouts.

THE BIBLE AND THE CHURCH

By GEORGE MATTHEWS ADAMS

The so-called Bible Week has come and gone. Every week should be Bible Week — in fact every day should find the Bible enriching the spiritual nature of us all. Certainly no other book has its wealth of beauty and inspiration. Especially during this time of mental confusion, what other book can even compare to the Bible?

Though I have read the Bible over and over, and heard my father preach from almost every part of it,
it still does it amaze and inspire me as no other book among the thousands in my library. Its very simplicity and over-all universality draws one's interest to it continually.
No other volume ever published so deserves its title of the "Book of Books." It is the one book that nourishes the mind, the heart, and the soul.

The Bible is the voice of the Church, and its complete library.
Within the walls of the Church the lessons from the Bible, expounded, explained, and applied to our every day life, are ever new, and never old.
I believe in the Church—no matter what denomination. It is a place where the poorest and humblest to the greatest among men, may find spiritual refreshment and appeasement for all our inward hunger of heart and soul.

I feel at home in any Church, for I look upon each as one of God's way-stations, where rest is gained and where we can meditate upon the goodness of God, and his manifold gifts to all. No matter what the message of the minister may be, the mere presence of us in a Church of our choice, is a spiritual gain that we can carry with us during every day of the following week.

Never has the opportunity and responsibility of the Church been so great as now. Thousands of returning soldiers have had God revealed to them as never before, and never will the Church be called upon to do greater service to these boys than now. May it not find them? Religion is being challenged as never before. It above all other means, holds the key to permanent peace in the world. It alone can assure the human heart that it need not fear.

THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

Move by Gunboats Is Cited To Show That Washington Knew Japs Were To Attack

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14—Here is one important tip-off showing the administration knew war was coming in the Pacific, but expected it in the Philippines. . . . Adm. William Glassford, commanding U. S. gunboats in the Yangtze patrol, carefully shepherded his fleet out of Shanghai across tempestuous seas to Manila. They were flat-bottomed boats, dangerous in rough, deep-sea weather, but, knowing the Japs were about to strike, he made the emergency trip just before Pearl Harbor. . . . At that time everyone expected the Japs to strike the Philippines, the Dutch East Indies or Singapore. One thing Pearl Harbor congressmen don't want to investigate is why, in view of these expectations, Gen. MacArthur got caught with all his planes on the ground, losing 300 fighters and all his Flying Fortresses. . . . If GOP congressmen do investigate—which they probably won't—they'll find that the air force officer in command of those planes urged Mac-Arthur to let him take them off
Clark field—where the Japs later smashed them.

John L. Lewis Orates

Battle-browed John L. Lewis delivered a speech in the secret sessions of the Labor-Management conference last week which has both labor and industry delegates buzzing.

Though Lewis is the most feared and hated of all labor leaders, his speech brought cheers from industry members, frowns from certain labor leaders.

"It's the best management speech on the whole wage-price issue," applauded H. W. Steinkraus, of Bridgeport Brass, a management delegate.

What the mine union boss demanded at the closed-door meeting was wage increases, but—and it was a very big but—he also demanded price increases for industry. This cuts right underneath the whole position of President Truman and many labor leaders, namely that wage increases plus price increases are meaningless, would only mean that labor paid more for everything.

President Truman and advisers have maintained that, while this might bring temporary benefits for organized union labor, it would hurt teachers, white-collar workers and, later, organized labor. Truman also maintains that industry has made enough profits from the war to afford wage increases and still make money, especially with taxes greatly reduced.

The fact that John L. Lewis opposed this indicated to insiders a three-way play: (1) He wants to undercut CIO; Phil Murray, who favors the government's position of wage increases without price increases; (2) He is bidding to take AFL leadership away from Bill

Green; (3) He isn't averse to wrecking the entire Labor-Management conference.

John L. also has been handing out statements, according to the steel and auto workers, telling them that they are asking for piddling wage increases. The Lewis statements are calculated to stiffen auto and steel workers' backs, make them dissatisfied with CIO leadership. Also, they are likely to help precipitate a strike, and Lewis knows from his own sad experience in the recent coal strike that strikes right now can be most unpopular with the public.

Naval War-Tug

A terrific backstage battle is raging between the admirals over who will replace Adm. King as chief of naval operations. The combat admirals want Adm. Chester Nimitz.
They saw him operate in the Pacific. Adm. King himself is pushing Adm. Raymond Spruance, also an
A-1 man. Secretary Forrestal is supporting Adm. R. S. Edwards, now deputy chief of naval operations, and a leading promoter of navy imperialism. . . . The first trial of the Kansas Kingfishes begins today
when the head of the Kansas State Police faces a jury—if Judge Helvering doesn't postpone it. . . . Last week Gen. Lucius Clay, No. 2 boss of Germany, announced publicly that U. S. authorities in Nazi-land have asked for an additional $30-000,000 worth of food for the German people. Yet, on October 16, in a secret meeting of American generals, Gen. Clay stated privately that the U. S. zone has a special reserve of 300,000 tons of food which it did not want to use until American public opinion favored feeding the Germans. . . . Jesse Jones, the man whom Franklin Roosevelt kicked out of the cabinet, is now the man who really runs his old job of federal loan administrator —back-stage. President Truman has closed his eyes to it, but Jones's position in Washington today is just about as powerful as ever. He operates from room 450 in the Statler hotel and his phone is so busy that not even his wife can reach him. . . . If you want to buy a jeep, a truck, a factory, an oil refinery or some old tires, it's Jesse Jones's old outfit which handles it.

Little Business Break

Hard-working Attorney General
Tom Clark has written a confidential memo to the White House advising that the Smaller War Plants Corporation cannot be robbed by the Commerce department and Jesse Jones's old RFC without an act of Congress. . . . This is a break for little business. . . . The Smaller War Plants Corporation had been doing a real job for the smaller businessman, also had won prestige on Capitol Hill. . . . John Snyder, the small town banker, now war reconverter, wanted to transfer it by executive order without congressional okay. In fact, the executive order was already drawn up when this columnist broke the story, following which the problem was referred to the attorney general. Assistant Secretary of Labor Carl Moran is another of the A-1 public servants deserving the administration. He is going back to Maine from whence he came, despite White House entreaties that he stay. . . . John Gibson, of Detroit, a CIO man, will take his place. This will balance the two assistant secretaries of labor between the CIO and AFL.

Roosevelt College

Behind Mrs. Roosevelt's dedication of Roosevelt college in Chicago today is a unique story. Formerly Chicago's YM-C-A college, a low-cost institution for the poor, it was superintended by leading Chicago banks.
Suddenly they awoke to the fact that twenty-five per cent of the student body was negro, asked President James Sprawling to put a quota on further negro students.
He refused, then handed in his resignation. . . . Simultaneously, ninety-two per cent of the faculty resigned plus ninety-seven per cent of the students. The bankers found themselves without a college.

Marshall Field, the Julius Rosenwald Foundation, plus Chicago citizens then raised half a million to found a new low-cost college in the Loop. The old YMCA college is no more and Roosevelt college begins today. . . . It's the first time that both students and faculty walked out simultaneously.

Stassen Looms
For Presidency,
Sullivan Says

By MARK SULLIVAN

The recent election for mayor of New York city, turning out rather disastrously for the Republicans, led to discussion of the effect on Governor Thomas E. Dewey as a Republican presidential possibility in 1948. This in turn led to discussion of the whole Republican field. In all such speculation, the name of ex-Governor Harold E. Stassen, of Minnesota, more recently a navy captain, was included.

While this was going on, but without relation to it, and wholly as a coincidence, Governor Stassen gave out an answer to the most momentous of present-day problems,
what to do about the atomic bomb.
Governor Stassen's plan attracted instant attention, much of it praise.
Some criticism. What distinguished it was not necessarily its value as such, but its boldness and concrete-ness. In a distracted world, with leaders puzzled and hesitant, one man stepped forward with something definite and detailed. The country turned and looked.

Another Forward Instance

This incident recalls another, some three years ago. In late 1942, long before the idea of world union was generally accepted, while indeed there was still much opposition to it, Governor Stassen stepped forward with a concrete and detailed proposal for a strong world organization. He went farther than other advocates of the idea, farther than President Roosevelt, farther than Wendell Willkie, so far indeed that it was commonly said Governor Stassen's pioneer position took him out of the running for the 1944 Republican presidential nomination.

Mr. Stassen's proposal was stronger than the United Nations Organization created at San Francisco last year turned out to be. Presently came the atomic bomb, which justified the foresight of Governor
Stassen and other pioneers.

To recall this is not to suggest that Governor Stassen's present proposal about the atomic bomb is the best one. It is not to put emphasis on any quality of so-called "vision." One should indeed be cautious rather than overready to accept any answer by any person to any one of the world's problems.
Nothing truer could be said than a recent observation by General of the Army George C. Marshall: "I question that there is any one among us who can provide a satisfying answer to even a small number of the searching questions that tax our minds and sharpen our fears and weigh on our hearts."

Surefooted though Bold

But it is apparent Mr. Stassen has a quality which, especially in the present state of the world, makes him politically important. It is a willingness to take responsibility. A cautious man, if he gave thought to his political future as a presidential candidate of the opposition party would have regarded 1942 as a time to practice restraint about world union, and the present as a time to practice restraint about the atomic bomb.

Governor Stassen's boldness is not boldness for its own sake. With boldness, in his case, goes surefootedness. While he has confidence, he is utterly without pride of opinion. In his 1942 proposal for a strong world organization, he was careful to emphasize and repeat that his plan was tentative, and that he was putting it out largely for the sake of getting constructive criticism of details.

Again, in putting out his present proposal about the atomic bomb, he was careful to say:

"I present specific detailed recommendations, not because I am insistent that these are the precise answers, but rather because it is my observation that to discuss a subject in broad terms that mean all things to all men, does not contribute to clarification or decision. I present exact detail in order that men might differ from me and from the discussion of these differences we might find the way to the best answers."

Vitality Important

Possibly Mr. Stassen's readiness to come to grips with hard problems may be due in part to his vitality and his relative youth, he is 38. This too is a valuable quality in the present state of the world. Under the sudden and terrific impacts of world crises, men in official positions of responsibility grow tired, lose their resiliency and initiative. There was truth in the resented statement of Republicans during the 1944 campaign that the Roosevelt administration was tired and worn. That it was true was shown a few months after the campaign ended by the resignation, because of ill-health, of the Secretary of State, Cordell Hull, who for twelve years had heroically stood up to problem after problem, and by the death, a little later, of the similarly long-burdened President Roosevelt.

If in 1948 the country looks for a new vitality of leadership, Governor Stassen is likely to figure importantly.

Patterson's Force Talk Is Viewed As Hurting UNO

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14—Distrust of the future effectiveness of the United Nations has come for the first time from any responsible member of the United States government.

Secretary of War Patterson, who is looked upon as the man who is to be chosen secretary of a single department of defense, if that plan is adopted by Congress, has announced that military force and more military force is the language in which America's relations to other nations are hereafter to be conducted.

Presumably Mr. Patterson speaks for President Truman, for it is hardly likely that the president would retain in his cabinet anyone who expressed such an important view either indiscreetly or without sanction of the White House and department of State.

"In the world today," Secretary Patterson is quoted as having told the Senate Military Affairs committee, "it's military power that counts. It's military power that and I think that is why the president wants action now."

Training Bill Advocated

Mr. Patterson was advocating the immediate passage of the compulsory military training bill and said he wanted it as a foundation for national security.

"If I were perfectly certain that we would never have another world war and perfectly certain that the United Nations organization would work right from the go-off, I'd never advocate this program," he said.

This is unpleasant news to be cabled around the world. The American secretary of war doubts the efficacy of the United Nations even before it holds its first meeting and doesn't hesitate to express his lack of confidence in public before a committee of the United States Senate.

The peoples of other nations cannot be expected to have much confidence in the charter of the United Nations if a member of President Truman's cabinet has already lost confidence in that charter.

Russia Probably Meant

What Secretary Patterson says in effect is that America needs a military training program to impress some potential enemy right away.
Inasmuch as Germany and Japan have been rendered helpless and defenseless—at least for a decade or more—and the only nations of any power which could offer resistance to the United States in the immediate future are to be found among the victorious Allies, what nation is Mr. Patterson afraid will not abide by the provisions of the United Nations charter in preserving peace?

Could Mr. Patterson possibly have had in mind Russia? He probably would deny this vehemently and it would be tactful to do so but the leaders of the Russian people are not stupid observers of American affairs. A statement such as Mr.

Patterson made to the Senate Military Affairs committee can have but one meaning—that the compulsory military training program is being advocated as a means of warding off a possible aggression by a major power—and since Britain is not likely to attack us, the only major power left is Russia.

Force Talk Lamentable

There is cause for lament that President Truman's cabinet members are talking force and more force. That is not the way to build friendship. How great, therefore, is the cause for rejoicing over the simple words of Britain's prime minister, who, on the same day
the Patterson testimony was given, was saying to the joint session of the Congress:

"The greatest task that faces us today is to bring home to all people before it is too late that our civilization can only survive by acceptance and practice in international relations and in our national life of the christian principles we are members one of another."

Mr. Attlee was using not the language of bluster or threat but words of moral influence.

"In facing world problems as we must," he added, "it is a great mistake in my view to think constantly of war and the prevention of war.
We have to think rather of the best means of building up peace. . . .
I hold it true that the more the citizens of the world can get to know each other the less likely are we to have the emotional condition in which war is possible."

Clinton F. Beckner
Divisional Sales Manager

Newville, Penna.

Dear Clinton:

Last Tuesday I brought a large bottle of Cloverdale Club Soda to Baltimore and kept it in the refrigerator for two days so it was thoroughly cold, and I then opened this without agitation and carefully poured it into a tall glass.

First, after removing the crown the water was completely quiet in the bottle which showed a very good saturation. If the water had started to bubble to any marked degree, or for that matter to bubble at all, it would have indicated instability of the gas in the water, and I was very glad to see that the contents of the bottle remained perfectly quiet with no escape of gas noticed.

After pouring, the water gave off a tremendous volume of gas which continued for a long time. A second glass acted the same way, and a third glass, emptying the bottle, likewise acted the same way. The contents of the bottle remained quiet after the first glass had been poured, and also after the second glass had been poured indicating very great stability. But I then poured this water back and forth from glass to glass with plenty of agitation, etc., with the object of removing the gas from the water. I had to pour back and forth 15 or 20 times to reach a point where apparently no more gas would come out. I then tasted the water and it was still very sharp and pungent with the taste of the gas.

In my opinion this was sparkling water as it should be.

Tom Tritt, as plant superintendent, and the boys and girls in the plant, are to be congratulated for turning out such a fine product.

Very truly yours,

Dannell Martin

THIS, we reasoned, is no time to offer folks a car that stops with artful face-lifting.

It has been nearly four years since our last new Buick was built—it wouldn't be shooting square now to give you less than our honor-bright best.

So we overhauled our whole factory to advantage it with the latest in war-developed machines and processes.

We scoured the country for the stoutest metals anyone can buy today.

We set ourselves precisions that in some cases exceed those of aircraft engine production.

And we eagle-eyed every one of this Buick's 12,000 parts to see if it could be bettered in any way, big or little.

The result is that through every stunning inch of this bright new honey runs solid, dependable Buick character, honest and uncompromised.

It's in swift clean lines. In seats that are three-persons wide. In stout, time-defying frames and underpinning. Above all—in the lift and life of a Fireball straight-eight that's even livelier than in 1942.

The cars your Buick dealer will have are big. They're beautiful. They're Buicks.

Christian Endeavor Program for State Is Outlined

A state Christian Endeavor program entitled, "Enlist for Christ," was presented by the Rev. Raymond Curtis Steinhart, secretary of the Maryland organization, at the workers banquet held Tuesday evening at Zion Reformed church, North Mechanic street. He pointed out that the program stresses the winning of others for church membership; Christian living; witnessing for Christ and postwar leadership.

During the business session the country budget was presented and pledges for the state union were received. The Rev. Fred Zimmerman, pastor of the Congregational church, Frostburg, offered the blessing; George Tederick served as toastmaster and Mrs. Lena Rizer led the group singing. The musical program also included a vocal solo by George Truly, Frostburg, with Miss Jane Grindle at the piano. Fifty-five persons attended, representing nine churches.

After visiting throughout the Frostburg area yesterday, the Rev. Mr. Steinhart spoke at a meeting in Frostburg Congregational church at 7:30 o'clock.

Miss Grace England will preside at the rally to be held at 7:45 o'clock this evening in Zion church, this city. The Rev. W. J. Lloyd, Ellerslie, will give the invocation, the Rev. Fred Oberkercher will read the Scripture and offer a prayer; Leon England will play a coronet solo accompanied by John S. Gridley. George Truly will be the organist for the service and the Rev. J. Edgar Walter, Calvary Evangelical church, will give the benediction.

The Rev. Mr. Steinhart will speak on "Decisions." Following the service a recreational period will be held under the direction of Miss Grindle. The Rev. Mr. Steinhart will also give a demonstration of magic and refreshments will be served. The closing devotional will be offered by the Rev. George Wehler, Salem Reformed church, Frostburg.

A resume of the work will be given by the Rev. Mr. Steinhart at the closing meeting at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening in the First Christian church this city. The yearly plans for Allegany county Christian Endeavor will also be outlined.

Miss Susan Jones Is Extensively Entertained

The Bowling Green Girls Club entertained with a surprise party in honor of Miss Mary Susan Jones, Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Glenn Johnson.

Miss Jones, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore A. Jones, Bowling Green, will become the bride of Pfc. George Paul Ross, son of Mrs. Lena Ross, Ridgeley, and the late Mr. Ross, tomorrow evening. The ceremony will be solemnized in St. Mark's Evangelical and Reformed church, with the Rev. R. S. Nagle, pastor of Trinity Lutheran church, Berlin, Pa., officiating, assisted by the Rev. Carl Clapp, pastor. Miss Louise Jones and Fred Dawson will be the attendants.

A pink and green color scheme was carried out in the decorations and repeated in the appointments of the refreshment table, which was covered with a lace cloth for the buffet style supper. It was decorated with green leaves, pink and green plates and favors and the individual cakes led in pink were inscribed with "Sue and Paul" in green.

Miss Jones was until her recent resignation leader of the club. She has been succeeded by Mrs. Johnson with Mrs. Claude Phillips assistant leader.

Other parties held earlier in the week in honor of Miss Jones include a dinner given by Miss Ruth Dickenson and Mrs. Grace Torbet, cousin and aunt respectively. It was held at the latter's home on Cleveland avenue. Yellow and bronze chrysanthemums were used in the decorations and covers were laid for fifteen guests.

Amateur Radio Fans Get Ranges

New frequency bands will be available to amateur radio operators today, the Federal Communications Commission announced. Amateurs will be able to contact others in foreign lands for the first time since they were silenced in wartime.

The FCC also advised operators that their licenses have been extended to May 15, 1946. The ban on amateur stations has been lifted, the FCC said.

The amateur authority to use the frequency band 112 to 115.5 megacycles expires Thursday since this band has been allocated to air navigation.

28 to 29.7 megacycles using type A 1 emission.
28.1 to 29.5 megacycles using type A 3 emission.
28.5 to 29.7 megacycles using special emission for radio-telephony (FM).
56 to 60 megacycles using types

144 to 148 megacycles using A 1, A 2, A 3 and A 4 emissions and special emissions for radio-telephony and radio-telegraphy. (The part of this band between 146.5 to 148 megacycles cannot be used by any amateur station within fifty miles of Washington, D. C., or Seattle, Wash.)
2,300 to 2,450 megacycles, 5,250 to 5,650 megacycles, 10,000 to 10,500 megacycles and 21,000 to 22,000 megacycles using A 1, A 2, A 3 and A 4 emissions and special emissions for radio-telephony and radio-telegraphy.

Amateur stations are still barred in the Central, South and West Pacific.

Youngster Wins Hobby Guild Honor

Twelve-year-old John M. Vocke, son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Vocke, 603 Shriver avenue, has been admitted to the Hobby Hall of Fame, highest honor of the Hobby Guild of America, as a result of his penchant for collecting shoulder patches from American servicemen at home and around the world.

His collection of about 400 shoulder patches enabled him to become one of about forty out of some 4,000 insignia collecting members of the Hobby guild who so far have been admitted to the hall of fame.

The youngster, persistent in his requests to servicemen to send him shoulder patches in particular and other military insignia in general, has received an assortment of service ribbons, medals, caps, flashlights and a variety of other GI gear. In addition, he has received a stack of letters from servicemen all over the world who answered his requests.

Now a student in the seventh grade at St. Patrick's parochial school, the boy started collecting shoulder patches a short time before the D-day invasion of France, and really went into it in earnest following the deaths, days apart, of his uncles, Pfc. Joseph J. and John Grimes, Frostburg, on the Normandy beaches.

Other Allegany and Garrett county men in the group are Sgt. Richard E. Metts and Pfc. Edmer V. Coburn, of Lonaconing; T-5 Carl L. Harmon, of Cresapton; Cpl. Clarence H. Caton, of Frostburg; Cpl. Robert L. Wilson, of Westernport; T-4 John A. McDade, of Mt. Savage; T-4 Robert T. Hoffman and Pfc. John E. Castilow, of Oakland; and Pfc. Jeremiah G. Tasker, of Deer Park.

MANY have been waiting a long time for telephone service. We want them to know we have their applications still before us—that each application will be filled in proper turn when facilities are again available.

How soon that will be, we can't say. No two telephone systems are exactly alike. Each one has to be designed for the area it serves. It takes time to plan, to manufacture and install the switchboards, cables and other equipment that are needed.

But—the peak of telephone shortages has about been reached. We are on our way to give service to all who want it, and we are turning our facilities back to civilian service just as fast as we turned them to the instant needs of war.

To those who still wait we say, "Thanks for your patience."

Milk Shortage Due To Seasonal Slump

The milk shortage in Cumberland is not yet as acute as that in Hagerstown, Frederick and Washington, local dairy officials reported yesterday.

The shortage here was characterized as a "seasonal one" by local dairy men.

One dairy dealer here reported that its supply has been cut ten to fifteen per cent with a shortage of several hundred gallons daily. Production is generally short in the fall, it was pointed out, with this year's slump being somewhat more acute than usual. Meanwhile, consumption has been increasing.

The cause of the shortage is believed to be due more to the fact that cows are "not milking up to average" than to any other factor, one dairy official said.

One aggravating feature was the premature lifting of control on ice cream and whipping cream diverting a large amount of fluid milk into these channels, it was reported. Baltimore dairies yesterday were reported curtailing milk deliveries and diverting fluid milk from the manufacture of ice cream and other dairy products to forestall a retail "crisis."

Eckhart Water Company Plans Dinner-Dance

Concern Will Honor Returned Veterans of Community

By RUDOLPH NICKEL

FROSTBURG, Nov. 14 — The Eckhart Water Company will sponsor a dinner in honor of returned veterans of Eckhart Thursday evening, November 29. The dinner will be served at 7:30 o'clock in St. Michael's hall, Eckhart, by a group of fifteen women who are associated with the water company.

Following the dinner, there will be open-house. A dance will begin at 8:30 o'clock.

John Byrnes, president, and Richard Bolt, secretary of the water company, and Miss Lillian Feldmann, chairman of the women's group, will meet Thursday evening with the entire committee to complete arrangements for the event which is to be held as a community reception.

According to present plans, the veterans are to be welcomed home in a brief address to be delivered by a citizen of Eckhart.

Re-elect Wehler
Meeting Monday afternoon, the Frostburg Ministerial Union re-elected the Rev. George L. Wehler, pastor of Salem Evangelical and Reformed church, president, and the Rev. H. O. Walters, pastor of First English Baptist church, secretary-treasurer.

The association is arranging for the purchase of sufficient copies of the "Upper Room" for distribution to patients in the Miners hospital. The "Upper Room" is a book of daily devotions published quarterly by the general board of evangelism of the Methodist church.

The next meeting of the group will be held December 11 in St. Paul's Lutheran church.

Two Men Discharged

Two Frostburgers who received medical discharges from the navy have enrolled as students at Pennsylvania State college under the G. I. bill. They are Glenn Hanna, son of Mrs. Evelyn Hanna, 109 Bowery street, and Leonard Ritchie, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Ritchie, Wier's Crossing.

Both boys are majoring in physical education in preparation for careers as athletic instructors. Under the G. I. bill, Hanna will receive sufficient funds to pay his way at college for twenty-six months, and Ritchie will have his way paid for eighteen months.

Hanna, a graduate of Beall high school, entered the navy in March, 1944 and received his discharge in May, this year.

Ritchie entered the navy several months later and received his discharge in July, this year.

Hanna was discharged at the

Officials Work on Eliminating Cost of Westernport Pipe-line

By GEORGE W. DADDYSMAN

WESTERNPORT, Nov. 14 — A conference was held Monday night in the office of Horace P. Whitworth, Sr., town attorney, with Mayor Milton McIntyre and the commissioners of Westernport, John J. McMillen, Cumberland, and Owen Hatching, Frostburg, members of the Upper Potomac Savage River Commission concerning the cost of repairs to the town's wooden pipeline in the vicinity of the Savage river dam.

The town officials stated that their one and seven-tenths-mile wooden pipeline, extending from the Westernport supply dam to the site of the incomplete federal dam, leaks constantly. Since February the town has spent about $3,000 maintaining it.

The line was constructed about thirty-five years ago and covered by ten to fifteen feet of dirt. It has been weakened by heavy trucks and tractors.

Only about $200 has been spent on the eastern pipe which is seven and a half miles long. It is just below the wooden line.

The dam officials said that the town should have some relief but that only $200,000 is left to spend on the project. They told the town officials that they would take the matter up with Attorney General William C. Cullen, some something could be done to assist the town.

The officials told the town government that Sen. Tydings, Sen. Radcliffe and Congressman Beall from Maryland and Congressman Jennings Randolph from West Virginia are working on the early completion of the dam. The work may be resumed in the spring.

Plan School Program
The pupils of the Hammond street school, in observance of National Education Week, will present a program Friday at 2 p. m. in the auditorium at the school.

The program will include a book dramatization by the sixth grade; book characters in costume, songs and a marionette show by the fifth grade and book dramatization, songs, choral readings and stick puppets by the fourth grade.

Visitors and parents are invited to visit the school while the classes are in session this week.

Hanna To Speak
Tally Hanna, Westernport, will speak Thursday at 7:30 p. m. at the Luke school, William G. Fatkin, principal, announced.

Hanna was recently discharged from the army after nearly four years of service of which fifteen months were spent overseas.

Open house was observed at the school yesterday afternoon with forty-three parents visiting the classes while they were in session.

To Help in Campaign
The American Legion Auxiliary Unit of Victory Post No. 155 will co-operate with the post in its project of "A Gift to the Yank Who Gave."

At a meeting of the auxiliary Monday night Miss Frances Peters was appointed chairman of a committee. Workers were assigned to different sections of the town.

Boxes of uniform size and quality will be packed by the legion at a cost of $3 each. They will contain necessary articles that any hospitalized veteran will enjoy and appreciate. Contributions may be left with Miss Peters or at the legion home.

Stock Market Is Irregular; Late Demand Lifts Few Mining Shares

By HUDSON PHILLIPS
NEW YORK, Nov. 14 (AP) — Buy-ers continued to seek out some low-priced utility and realty stocks today while rails and selected industrials also advanced in an otherwise irregular market.

Last-minute demand lifted a few mining shares to new highs for 1945 or longer, including Dome Mines, Roan Antelope and Alaska Juneau. Equitable Office and United Cigar-Whelan Stores also touched yearly peaks.

Steels, rubbers and farm implements generally fell off fractions while chemicals were down as much as two points.

The decline followed the pattern of Tuesday's late selloff during the first hour and was interpreted as a technical correction of the recent swing to eight and one-half year summits.

Activity slowed at times with volume totaling 1,610,000 shares against 2,500,000 yesterday — highest since last June 28.

Only one side to our railroad tracks

Folks who are better off in our town live on the west side of the railroad tracks. We've got a lake there, and the local park, and some nice real land.

There used to be a phrase "from the wrong side of the tracks." It meant what you think... but you don't hear it any more. Not since Charlie Jenkins came home with the Purple Heart, and Willie Wells got the Silver Star. There isn't any "wrong side" of the railroad tracks now!

And that change is going on all over America... where our

Tomatoes Placed On Ceiling Price

Tomatoes are being community priced for the first time in over a year. They have been under price control right along, however, owing to such a short supply at the present time, OPA thought it advisable for the consumer's protection, to set definite dollars and cents ceiling prices on tomatoes. They are listed in two categories on OPA's community price list of fresh fruits and vegetables. Loose tomatoes are 40¢ cents a pound, while those packed in one pound cartons are a cent higher, 41¢ cents a pound.

Cranberries are also listed in two categories—loose and in cellophane bags. Loose cranberries are 35¢ cents a pound, while those in the cellophane bags are 37¢ cents a pound; the additional 1¢ cents allows for packaging costs. Both Indian River grapefruits and oranges are back in the markets. White grapefruits are community priced at nine and a half cents a pound; oranges are 10¢ cents a pound.

Loose carrots (without tops) are rather abundant and have dropped a half a penny to eight cents a pound. Peas are now coming from distant points, which means added transportation costs. They have gone up a half a cent to 24¢ cents a pound. Grapes are coming out of cold storage. They have advanced a penny to 17¢ cents a pound. OPA has permitted this slight increase to cover the additional storage charge. White pickles and boiler onions—under an inch and a half—are back on the list at 12¢ cents a pound.

Other prices listed are: Apples Northwestern varieties, 15¢ cents a pound; eastern varieties, 14¢ cents a pound. Central American bananas, 12¢ cents a pound. Lemons, 14¢ cents a pound. Oregon, Washington and California pears are 18¢ cents a pound while Italian pears are 16¢ cents a pound.

1946 Oldsmobile Is on Display

Hundreds of persons have inspected the 1946 Oldsmobile two-door club sedan which is on display at the Frantz Oldsmobile showrooms, 163 Bedford street.

The model shown is the "76" and is painted red. Three series of cars are being offered by Oldsmobile in their 1946 models. They are the "66," "76-78" and "98" on 119-inch, 125-inch and 127-inch wheelbases. The machines feature hydro-matic drive, which affords fully automatic shifting through all four forward speeds and eliminates the clutch pedal.

The local agency is not taking any orders for the new models as production is not high enough, and no prices have been set for the machines.

Bedford high school's rampaging Bisons, forty-five strong, with Coach Bruce M. Fisher in the driver's seat, will stampede into Cumberland tonight seeking their tenth straight victory of the season when they lock horns with LaSalle high school's Explorers in the Fort Hill stadium at 8 o'clock.

The Herd has been the talk of Western Pennsylvania scholastic football circles all season. In rolling over nine Keystone state foes, Coach Fisher's classy eleven has amassed a total of 296 points while yielding six—a touchdown scored by Ferdale high school's Yellowjackets in a game at Johnstown several weeks ago.

Rose and Nave To Play

Bedford's backfield includes two boys well known in local baseball circles—David Rose, quarterback, and Veryl Nave, fullback, both of Centerville. Dave starred as shortstop and Nave played in the outfield for the Centerville Reds, champions of the Pen-Mar League for the 1945 season. Bruce Fisher, Jr., son of the coach, holds down a halfback position with the Bisons.

Much of the credit for the success of the Bedford team belongs to Coach Fisher, who directed all sports at Ferdale high school for nineteen years before taking over the reins at the Bedford county institution in 1944. Fisher is a graduate of Millersville Teachers college and Juniata college.

Brother Gregory, athletic director of LaSalle, realizing that Cumberland grid fans were anxious to see Bedford's undefeated team in action, began angling for a game with the Fishermen last month. The Bedford school board accepted the invitation in behalf of the Bisons and the date was set. It is in the nature of a post-season affair for Bedford since the Buffaloes concluded their regular schedule with Shade Township, of Cairnbrook, Pa., on November 2.

Cooler Weather Forecast

Rain fell yesterday but the weather forecast for today is clearing and cooler. One provision of the agreement between the schools is that if it is raining at game time tonight the game will be postponed until Saturday night. It is quite a problem to get football uniforms cleaned nowadays and Bedford doesn't care to have its grid togs all messed up in the final game of the season.

LaSalle Will Be the Underdog

LaSalle will be the underdog in tonight's game because of the fact that it has had a mediocre season, having won only three of eight games played to date. The Explorers, however, expect to give a good account of themselves in spite of the fact that they'll concede victory and class to the invading eleven. It will be the final tilt of the season for Coach John Long's team.

One of the largest crowds to attend a nocturnal game this season is expected in the stands for the opening kickoff.

Two Bands Will Play

Music before the game and during intermission will be provided by the bands of Bedford and Hyndman high schools.

A play-by-play account of the game will be given by Arthur G. Ramey over the stadium's public address system.

Officials for the game will be John J. "Bobby" Cavanaugh, referee; Ed Milbrada, umpire, and Bill Spangler, head linesman.

Centerville's Reds, Pen-Mar Loop Champs, Show $489.80 Profit

The 1945 season was a huge success in all respects for the Centerville Reds, champions of the Pen-Mar Baseball League, according to Manager John Hafer.

At a recent meeting of the finance committee, he reported that a total of $489.80 was cleared by the team which represented the Pennsylvania farming community. New uniforms were purchased by the club at the start of the season.

New jackets will be bought and presented to twenty members of the organization.

Centerville won the Pen-Mar loop title by defeating the Queen City Brewers of Cumberland.

"Members of the finance committee are Claude Street, Joseph McElfish, Carl Hinkle, William C. Nave, Charles Deremer, Howard Morris and Ray Nave.

C. Arthur Smith, business manager, announced this week that Queen City's Brewers were $417.60 to the good at the close of the season.

24 Foxes Trapped On Green Ridge

Wilson Warns Hunters that Dogs May Be Caught in Traps

Hunters were warned last evening by Kenneth A. Wilson, state game commission technician, that the state is conducting a fox trapping program in the Green Ridge forest section.

Although there is little or no danger of any persons being injured by the traps, there is a possibility that some dogs may be caught. Only one dog, however, has been found since the program began the middle of October.

Any dogs caught will be released promptly since the traps are examined each morning.

Fifteen red and nine gray foxes have been captured at Green Ridge. Fifteen skunks, seven opossums and one barred owl have also been found in the traps.

It was announced that 200 turkey gobblers have been released in this county and that 100 hens will be distributed in the spring.

The state game commission would appreciate, Wilson said, if sportsmen shooting any of the banded turkeys would return the bands to game commission officials. Hunters who find dead turkeys in the woods are also requested to return the bands so the records on the birds may be completed.

Coaches Are Named For East-West Game

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 14 (AP)—Arrangements for the twenty-first annual East-West all-star football game, played New Year's day for the crippled children's hospital, were completed today with the signing of the coaching staffs. Director William M. Coffman announced.

The Eastern team will be coached by Andy Kerr, Colgate; Bernie Bierman, Minnesota, and Beattie Feathers, North Carolina State college. Feathers, who played in the 1934 game here, is the newest addition to the staff and will select players from the Southern states.

Orin E. "Babe" Hollingbery, former Washington State college mentor, will again lead the Western squad, assisted by Percy Loeoy of Oregon State College.

The Easterners will assemble at Northwestern university and will leave Chicago in time to arrive in San Francisco, Dec. 20. They will train at Santa Clara university.

Golfers Vie for $10,000 In Mobile Open Tourney

MOBILE, Ala., Nov. 14 (AP)—Tony Penna, of Dayton, Ohio, a consistent money winner on the PGA's winter-time golf circuit, established himself today as one of the favorites for top honors among some 140 shot-makers entered in Mobile's $10,000 Azalea open starting tomorrow.

Penna posted a two-under-par 70 in a practice session.

Ellsworth Vines, the former tennis champ from Denver, Colo., went around in 75 after making a 1,500 mile automobile trip from Denver to join the winter circuit.

Benny Shute, top professional in the North and South open at Pinehurst last week, reported an even par 72.

Polynesian Is Winner In Pimlico Handicap

BALTIMORE, Nov. 14 (AP)—Mrs. P. A. B. Widener's Polynesian, winner of the 1945 Preakness, today captured the first half of the $5,000 added Reisterstown handicap feature at Pimlico.

After finishing second in four consecutive starts, Polynesian beat out Morris Wexler's British Buddy, which was second, by a head. Vincent Cleora's First Son finished third. Polynesian paid $4.80 for $2.

Epsom To Get Derby

LONDON, Nov. 14 (AP)—Britain's turf classic, the Derby, will return to Epsom Downs next year. It was disclosed today when the ministry of works granted permission to repair the grounds. The race was run at Newmarket during the war.

MEET BEDFORD'S TOUCHDOWN QUINTUPLETS

Quakers' Passing Star Gives Credit To 200-Pound Line

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 14 (AP)—Touchdown "Tossin" Bob Evans of Pennsylvania's potent football eleven credits the Quakers' big 200-pound line for his impressive aerial record.

"Who wouldn't hit a receiver if he has all afternoon to pass as I have?" Evans said. "That line of ours is terrific."

That line has been a big help, but Coach George Munger doesn't believe any credit should be taken away from Evans, rated the best Penn passer since Johnny Stober flipped them in 1928.

Evans has completed 24 of 44 passes for a 55 per cent average. His passes have covered 373 yards, and 10 went for touchdowns.

"That's sharp passing in any league," commented Munger.

Evans is a sophomore, having rejoined the Quakers after service as a waist-gunner over Europe. He won the Distinguished Flying Cross for aerial excellence in 33 military missions.

His booming kicks—especially the quick ones—have rocked opponents on numerous occasions. Most notable was a 78-yard quick kick against Navy.

The modest halfback would like to shift some of the credit heaped on him in newspaper accounts to his dad, Marine Capt. Bob Evans, one-time U.S. college star fullback.

Capt. Evans said "since he was this (thigh) high and about five years old, Bob and I have played catch with footballs and baseballs in our back yard."

"But," he added, "I brag about only one thing. I've never meddled with his coaches or second guessed them."

Evans will get a chance Saturday to toss against the nation's number one team—Army—at Franklin field.

Navy To Reject Bowl Game Bids

Adm. Fitch Says Contest Would Disrupt Scholastic Routine

MIAMI, Fla., Nov. 14 (AP)—The Miami Daily News said today that Vice Adm. Aubrey Fitch, commandant at the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, will issue a statement within the next day or two definitely rejecting any post season or bowl football game for the Midshipmen.

The News said that Adm. Fitch told Rep. Pat Cannon, of Miami, yesterday that he would "recommend against Navy participation in any game after the Army game December 1."

Orange Bowl officials had approached Navy authorities in an effort to win permission for the Midshipmen to play in the New Year's day classic at Miami.

"Such a participation would disrupt an already difficult scholastic routine," the newspaper said Adm. Fitch told Cannon. "The curriculum was compressed from four years to three during the war and the academy is now in the process of reorganizing to four."

Jockey Jessop Suffers Back Injury in Spill At Sportsman's Park

CHICAGO, Nov. 19 (AP)—Jockey Job Dean Jessop, 19, of Nibley, Utah, the nation's leading rider, suffered a back injury in a spill at Sportsman's park today and track officials said the injury would prevent Jessop from riding during the balance of the local season.

Jessop and Alfred Applebee, apprentice rider from Liberal, Kans., applied in the fourth race when Applebee's mount, Winkie, fell in the stretch turn as Jessop was making his move directly behind on the favored, Rich Sweep. Both jockeys were removed to a hospital for examination.

Romney To Battle Unbeaten Judges

Coach McElwee's Pioneers Play in Winchester Today

Coach Dick McElwee's Romney high school Pioneers will test an undefeated and untied team when they face the Handley high school Judges, formerly of the C. V. A. League, today in Winchester, Va.

Handley has won seven consecutive games and its victims are Fairfax, Waynesboro, Va., Warren County high school, twice, Berkeley Springs, Staunton and Harrisonburg. The strong Handley line has yielded only two touchdowns, one by Waynesboro and the second by Harrisonburg.

Romney's record to date is four wins, three losses and a scoreless tie with Ridgely. One of the Pioneers' victories is a 12 to 6 decision over Berkeley Springs.

Today's game will be the final of the season at home for the Judges, who are scheduled to play Martinsburg in an annual game on Thanksgiving day.

The Pioneers will lower the curtain on their 1945 grid campaign on Wednesday, November 21 when they play Fort Ashby high school in a Potomac Valley Conference game in Romney at 1:30 p. m.

Hoernschemeyer Is Out Of Navy-Wisconsin Game

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 14 (AP)—Navy Football Coach Oscar E. Hagberg disclosed today that Quarterback Bob Hoernschemeyer will not play against Wisconsin Saturday and may not see action in the Army-Navy game because of a "chronic weak right shoulder."

Hagberg said that Hoernschemeyer, who has carried the ball twenty-five times on rushing, gaining fifty-six yards, and tossed twenty-seven passes for 381, was suffering a defect similar to that of a "dead" pitcher's arm.

St. Mary's Gaels May Knock Bruins Out of Bowl Tilt

Jimmy Phelan's Kids Seek Eighth Win in Game with California

By BILL BECKER

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 14 (AP)—The Bruins of the University of California at Los Angeles are primed to upset St. Mary's Gaels Saturday and march right into Rose Bowl contention along with their crosstown rivals, the Southern California Trojans.

Both the Trojans and the Bruins backed into the limelight last week as Washington was toppled from the Pacific Coast Conference lead by Oregon State.

Now the pressure is really on. Finding themselves in the leading roles, both the Trojans and Bruins hope to win their remaining games and make their December 1 return meeting "The Battle for the Roses."

The Trojans are idle Saturday but meet Oregon State next week. The Bruins have California to beat after their joust with St. Mary's.

But St. Mary's, prominently mentioned for Rose Bowl consideration, is the Bruins' No. 1 problem. The Gaels have rolled over seven straight opponents, 262 points to 19. Their razzle dazzle completely befuddled Southern California two weeks ago, 26-0.

Incidentally, the Gaels-Tor-Rose-Bowl talk has subsided here, now that the local schools have the inside track. But win, lose or draw Saturday, Jimmy Phelan's kids appear almost certain to be somebody's bowl babies January 1.

It's not that easy for the Bruins. Their record already is marred by two defeats in six games. They lost to the Trojans and to St. Mary's Pre-Flight, both 13-6. Another loss would be a blow to Bruin prestige even should UCLA win its remaining conference games and technically earn the Rose Bowl bid.

Motor Speedway At Indianapolis Brings $750,000

Terre Haute Capitalist Is Buyer; Race Will Be Resumed May 30

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 14 (AP)—The world-famous Indianapolis motor speedway, home of the annual 500-mile automobile race, was sold today by Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker to Anton Hulman Jr., Terre Haute, Ind., capitalist.

Hulman, who will be chairman of the board, announced that Wilbur Shaw, three-time winner of the speedway classic, would be president and general manager. T. E. (Pop) Myers, a veteran official of the speedway, will remain as vice-president.

Shaw said preparations would begin immediately to resume the Memorial day race, suspended during the war, next May 30.

No official announcement of the purchase price was made but it was understood to have been approximately $750,000. Capt. Rickenbacker bought the speedway in 1927 for $700,000.

Hulman is head of the Clabber Girl Baking Powder Company and interested in various real estate and utility properties in the midwest. A sportsman and philanthropist, he has been interested in sports since he was a member of football, track and rowing teams at Yale university.

All of the new officers of the speedway are comparatively young men—in the forties.

Wilmington Wants Berth In Piedmont League

WILMINGTON, N. C., Nov. 14 (AP)—Wilmington interests headed by former State Senator James E. L. Wade today wired Clark Griffith of the Washington Senators that this city is ready to take over the eighth spot in the Piedmont league.

Wade's telegram followed an Associated Press dispatch today, quoting Griffith as saying Charlotte's return to the Piedmont league might be delayed in 1946 unless an eighth club could be found. Griffith is owner of the Charlotte club, which was a member of the prewar Piedmont loop.

Joe Louis Will Engage In Exhibition Bout

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 14 (AP)—Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis, who has been picking up some fancy money acting as guest referee in these parts the last few weeks, dons the gloves for a four-round exhibition here tomorrow night at the civic auditorium.

He will box two Negro opponents, Big Boy Brown and Jack Robinson, both from Detroit, two rounds apiece.

News and Navy Programs Are Listed by Radio

By C. E. BUTTERFIELD

NEW YORK, Nov. 14 (AP)—According to the schedules for Thursday two new programs are to appear at the 10 o'clock spot on two networks. MBS has one of them, listed as "You and the News." It will be a dramatized version of the week's events.

The other is on CBS and replaces the "Front Line" navy drama. It, too, is a drama, listed as "Island Venture," a story of the South Pacific.

Andre Kostelanetz, presenting an all-Tchaikovsky program for his CBS 9 o'clock, expects the veteran Dr. Walter Damrosch, noted for his past "Music Appreciation" hours, as a guest. Also there will be Reginald Stewart, pianist and conductor of the Baltimore symphony, as well as Baritone Earl Wrightson.

The Fred Waring morning contribution to NBC's navy drama, "Island Venture," is in the form of a choral in connection with American Education week.

"America's Town Meeting" and its usual panel of four, ABC at 8:30 p. m., will debate the question "Should We Have a Single Department for Our Armed Forces?"

Getting around further to the guest department there is Paula Stone's announcement that she will have Mayor-Elect William O'Dwyer of New York City, on MBS at 1:30 p. m. Also Edna Cantor and Sophie Tucker. Beas Wain makes her final appearance in the finale of the Antonini serenade on MBS at 9:30. Next week he will resume his half hour of song for the winter. Brig. Gen. Carlos P. Romulo is to guest speak in the "CBS School of the Air" "The Road to Manila" at 6 p. m. Zach Scott, who does movie and radio acting, will be in Suspense of CBS at 8 for "Murder off Key."

LISTEN WORLD!

—By Elsie Robinson
(Registered U. S. Patent Office)

THAT ISN'T LOVE
LOVE . . . how glibly we use that big word!

"I love!" we say. . . as though love were the same great experience for all people. Nothing could be further from the truth. Love, like water, can rise no higher than its source. Your love is as big as you are. And most of this thing we call love has about the same relationship to the grand passion as a spit ball has to the pyramids.

Romance, that feverish fiesta,
with its extravagant vows and expensive gestures. . . that isn't love, though we always mistake it for love. It's chemistry, or biology, or a seizure like fits. . . but it isn't love. Only when that fur, can be "cut down" and transformed into practical power for the daily performance does romance become love.
And not once in a million times have we the sense or control to transform romance into practical power.

The love of parents, concerning which there is so much hi-falutian oratory. . . the devotion of children to parents. . . the affection of wives for husbands and husbands for wives. . .
what is, all too frequently, the reality behind these fancy terms?

Parents hanging on to children gratifying their egotism in their children's venting their peevishness on their children.
Demanding the lives of their children in return "for all they've done."

THAT ISN'T LOVE!
Children hanging on to parents
. . . running home to parents
whenever life becomes difficult . . .
finding an escape from uncomfortable conflict in their parents' coddling and flattery.
THAT ISN'T LOVE!
Women battering on men. . .
demanding homage from men merely because they are women. . . using men. . . nagging, suspecting, scheming against men.
THAT ISN'T LOVE!
Men dominating women. . . demanding homage from women merely because they are men. . . showing off before women. . . cry-babbling to women.
THAT ISN'T LOVE!

What is it then? It's an escape for cowardice, a camouflage for cussedness, an alibi for selfishness, a cover-up for conceit. But by mutual consent, we glorify it with a noble name because we can't bear to face the ugly truth about ourselves.

REAL LOVE. . . THAT'S DIFF-ERENT!
And the test of its difference lies in this:
FALSE LOVE GRABS. . . REAL LOVE GIVES.
FALSE LOVE ASKS REWARDS
FOR ITS SERVICE. . . REAL LOVE FINDS REWARD IN SERVICE.

FALSE LOVE COUNTS THE COST. . . REAL LOVE DISCOUNTS
THE COST!
FALSE LOVE NARROWS LIFE.
REAL LOVE BROADENS IT.
Measure your experience, your interests, your service since love happened to you. What's the answer?

In Memoriam

In loving memory of Clara B. McCrea.
Jesus called our dear Wife and Mother to His Heavenly home above.
She was just an ordinary Mother
That anyone could love.
She would smile if she were weary.
Grim and sad the road so rough.
Ever there to share our burdens.
When we thought our going tough.
Our friends were always welcome
And the door was open wide.
Always ready for some stranger
Just to take a step inside.
We could not say goodbye.
Death came swiftly like an arrow.
Breaking through the binding tie.
Oh, how we miss you, dear Mother.
We may search the whole world over.
We will never find another that we love
As you, dear Wife and Mother.

Sadly missed by HUSBAND AND DAUGHTERS.

School Absences From Epidemic Reach 2,304

Schools Will Not Be Closed; Not Alarming, Dr. Franklin Says

With 2,304 students absent from twenty-one public and parochial schools in Cumberland yesterday, Dr. Joseph Franklin, who will resume his duties as county and city health officer today, said last night that no drastic measures such as closing schools is contemplated although health authorities are carefully watching the situation.

Dr. Franklin said the health department and Charles L. Kopp, county superintendent of schools, are keeping in close touch with each other regarding the epidemic of mild influenza, grippe and severe colds. He reiterated the words of Dr. Winter R. Frantz, assistant health officer, that the epidemic is not serious and is nothing to be alarmed about.

While it is not deemed necessary to close the schools, Dr. Franklin said the health department is making a thorough check to determine the amount of sickness and to determine just how sick the students are.

Kopp Shows Concern

Kopp, who yesterday showed concern over the epidemic, stated, "We will be guided by the advice, recommendations or directions of the health department in acting administratively in the matter."

He said a thorough investigation is being made and that the state department of education is generally opposed to closing schools unless the situation is drastic. School authorities, Kopp stated, must be guided by the recommendations of the health department in such matters.

Dr. Franklin said that from all indications the epidemic is mild but highly contagious. He contacted state health department authorities yesterday and quipped as saying they deemed it advisable to keep schools open for the present.

He recalled that early in the fall army health authorities predicted a mild influenza epidemic was imminent and that all army personnel were immunized by November 1.

Respiratory Infection

The epidemic prevalent in Cumberland appears to be a respiratory infection, Dr. Franklin said, explaining that because it is respiratory, coughing and sneezing constitute the chief cause of its spreading.

Dr. Franklin advised that persons use handkerchiefs when they sneeze or cough or in other words, "don't spray" everybody.

While many people who catch the infection are not calling doctors, Dr. Franklin said, he advised residents to keep up their resistance by getting plenty of sleep, adhering to a good diet and getting proper exercise.

School principals contacted yesterday said the children are "really sick." They described them as "pallid" and "listless," and one principal said, "You can literally see them wilt before your eyes."

A check of twenty-one public and parochial schools in Cumberland last night disclosed the following absentee totals for Tuesday and yesterday:

Dr. Samuel M. Jacobson, president of the fund, yesterday highly praised the work of the committee which was headed by Mrs. Morris Rosenbaum, general chairman.

Dr. Jacobson also stated that the amount raised was made possible by the $12,000 co-operation of non-Jews. "Some very fine contributions were made that were not solicited," Dr. Jacobson said.

Ladies Night Is Held by Traffic Club Members

Transportation and traffic problems were sidetracked at last night's meeting of the Tri-State Traffic Club, held at the All Ghan Shrine Club, while members entertained their ladies and guests with a dinner and talent from the recent Minstrel's success.

Speaking briefly, Martin L. Johnson, president, said that the club was now entering into the fourth year of existence. Members comprised a cross section of the rail, truck, bus and express industries, together with traffic men and managers of manufacturing industry, wholesale and retail distribution and other users of transportation.

The club aims, Johnson said, are to help its members in the better daily performance of their respective jobs, to promote acquaintance and a spirit of helpfulness among those engaged in the traffic business, plus a public spirited and unselfish desire to help promote and protect the general welfare and progress of the community.

Citing the need for box car equipment in the Midwest, Leo H. Ley, T. M. Kelly Springfield Tire Co., mentioned the drastic penalty order reinstated for the next thirty days applying as demurrage for cars held over the normal free time period.

Nearly a hundred persons were present for the evening's program and dinner.

Broadening of State's Educational System Stressed by Gov. O'Connor

Chief Executive Speaks at Banquet of Parent-Teacher Association

ANNAPOLIS, Nov. 14 (AP) — The Maryland Congress of Parents and Teachers concluded the first day's session of its thirtieth convention tonight with a banquet addressed by Governor O'Connor and Charles W. Phillips.

The banquet followed sessions in which reports were heard as well as a symposium "Building Our Educational Program from Maryland Legislative Blueprint."

In addressing the convention, Governor O'Connor stressed the need of broadening the state's educational system. He noted the progress of adult education, special provisions for veterans and the necessity of further state activity in the field of juvenile delinquency.

He told the group it was "much more far-sighted, economical and wise" to "educate youth properly for a form of government" than "to perpetuate ill-equipped and self-supporting citizens."

Charles W. Phillips, second vice president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, emphasized the importance of international co-operation.

At the morning session, the retiring president, Mrs. Stanley G. Cook, Indian Head, reported on the group's activities on behalf of improved education in Maryland.

In the afternoon, Phillips spoke on the convention theme "Together We Build," saying "there is more important job for us all than working with our boys and girls. They are our greatest investment."

x x x Business leaders agree that education must be considered an investment and not an assessment "x x x"

The symposium, led by Dr. Earle T. Hawkins, state supervisor of schools, "Building Our Educational Program from Maryland's Legislative Blueprint," was discussed.

Those taking part in the discussions included state supervisors Grace L. Alder, elementary schools; Gardner Shugart, Prince George's county superintendent of schools, and others.

Four families who occupy apartments above the stores escaped the blaze safely but whether or not their house furnishings were removed could not be learned.

While the Nally building was practically destroyed, flames were playing around the Western Auto Associates store, the J. and P. store, Coffey's Coffee shop, the beer tavern of Lou Cornish and the Oakland Sales Company, beer distributing establishment operated by Lawrence Fraley, on the first floor.

The Brown building was not on fire at 12:30 a. m. but occupants of the property were moving out.

The Nally building is located on the corner of Second and Alder streets, across from the First National bank.

Textile Workers Will Hold Forum On New Contract

Local 1874, TWUA, To Set Dead Line on Temporary Transfers

A ten-week Contract Interpretation Forum for members of Celanese Local 1874, Textile Workers Union of America, CIO, will begin tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock in the union hall under the direction of Miss Ruth Frank, educational director of the local.

The second meeting of the series will be held next Thursday at 7 p. m. and on each succeeding Thursday until the institute is completed.

Members of the TWUA union will be given an opportunity to discuss the working agreement which became effective September 30.

Rogan Will Attend

Larry Rogan, New York, national director of TWUA's educational program, will meet with the local's educational committee this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the union hall.

Mrs. Evelyn Morgan, chairman of the committee, will preside at this evening's meeting when the group will review the present program and lay plans for further activities.

The first issue of News and Views, published under the direction of the educational committee for shop stewards and committeemen of local 1874 will be distributed Thanksgiving week, Miss Frank announced yesterday.

The second of two membership meetings to discuss problems relating to temporary transfers at the Celanese plant will be held this morning at 10 o'clock in the union hall, William E. Meagher, president, announced last evening.

Textile Workers Meet Last Evening

Textile workers met last evening at 8 p. m. to set a date line on such transfers, Meagher said. The contract calls for September 19, 1942 as the date line, the union official added, and the meetings were called to act on a company suggestion that the date be placed at May, 1940.

The workers will also take action at the meetings on setting a time limit for temporary transfers from one department to another. Meagher said workers transferred from one part of the plant to another must decide whether they wish to remain as a permanent employee of that department or return to their original subdivision.

Co-operation Needed

Warning that the lessons of the recent war may be forgotten within a very short time, the speaker said that the best method of securing peace is to instruct the nation's youth in co-operation both at home and in the community.

"There have been unfavorable comparisons of training in schools with the training provided by military service," Dr. Church said. "But the armed forces were put on an unlimited budget, and the best instructors available were secured to train the young men."

"Public schools cannot train young men and women on the hush that are given the loyal and intelligent co-operation of the public, as well as adequate financial support," Dr. Church said.

Hunting License Rush Reported At Court House

Fifteen hundred hunting licenses have been issued here in the last two weeks in the rush before the Maryland upland game season opens today, Clerk of Court Robert Jackson said yesterday.

As of yesterday, a total of 5,835 hunting licenses, including state and county, have been issued in the clerk's office. Of this number, 4,185 are countywide licenses and 1,650 are statewide.

Attaches in the clerk's office said yesterday that a large number of the applicants for licenses in recent weeks were either discharged veterans or men still in uniform. The applications reveal that a large proportion of discharged men are unemployed indicating that they are contemplating some good hunting before going back to work.

Originally, 1,300 application blanks were ordered but the demand has been such that it has been necessary to reorder more blanks five times since the sale of licenses started.

Most of the soldiers are purchasing the statewide licenses which cost $5.25 which gives them the right to roam anywhere in the state hunting game.

In Allegheny county, almost every type of animal and bird, except deer, will be fair game for huntersmen starting today until December 31.

In Garrett county however, there are more restrictions. Turkeys, for instance, in the season of the year are legitimate game across the county line.

4-H and F.F.A. Calf Club Will Sponsor Party

Joe Steger, assistant county agent, announced yesterday that the State Holstein Breeder Association has voted to sponsor a 4-H and F.F.A. Calf Club party on December 27, 1945.

The place and time have not been set definitely but will be announced soon. Each assistant county agent has been asked to find out definitely the number of calves their boys would like to buy. The committee appointed to select the calves must know how many not later than December 1.

The tentative plan is to assemble two groups of calves. One group will be 75 calves and the other $100 calves. Calves will be classified according to age, type and breeding. All calves will have been dropped between July 1 and November 1, 1945.

Steger yesterday stressed the fact that this will afford 4-H members an excellent opportunity to obtain high quality calves at reasonable prices. The cost will not be as great as if they purchased the calves in open market, he said.

Schools Must Work for Peace, Dr. Church Says

Increased Appropriations Cited as Necessary to Proposed Program

The greatest challenge confronting public schools today is to secure the peace, Dr. E. E. Church, president of Potomac State School, Keyser, W. Va., said last night.
